

Strength for the Journey

“The New Covenant”

Jeremiah 31:31-34

Notes:

Strength through Prayer:

Spend a few moments in prayer. Give the Lord praise for the wonderful gift of the new covenant, and commit yourself to express your thanks through obedience.

You may want to begin your prayer with these words:

“Dear God, thank You that the new covenant is internal, intimate, and instinctive. Thank You that, as a believer, I have been declared innocent and all of my sins are covered under Christ’s matchless blood. I want to respond to this covenant with joyful, worshipful obedience.”

Closing Call to Action:

If we are part of an “I will” covenant, then we need to be “I will” followers of Jesus Christ.

If we live by an “I won’t” or a “Why do I have to?” attitude, then we need to wake up to the wonder of what God has done for us. Understanding the phenomenal realities of the new covenant brings us to a place where we respond to Him—our new covenant God—in happy, joyful, worshipful obedience.

A vertical column of horizontal dotted lines for taking notes.